Visualising

Draw a picture in your mind using the sentences below. Then, in the boxes, draw what you visualise from the story.

In the Simpson Desert, under the hot sun
A camel was smiling and enjoying his run.
FLICK, FLICK, FLICK!
His hat shooed the flies.
Too hot for Harvey, so he said his goodbyes!

As the sun started to fall,
they noticed a cave.
A wombat popped out, so they gave him a wave.
PLOP, PLOP, PLOP! He was muddy and wet, covered in dirt, he's the smelliest one yet!

The Flinders Ranges, a koala slept.
High in a gumtree while Harvey crept.
SNORE, SNORE, SNORE!
His eyes smiling, his head lolling.

The Flinders Ranges, a koala slept.
High in a gumtree while Harvey crept.
SNORE, SNORE, SNORE!
His eyes so sleepy.
Dreaming of gum leaves, green and leafy.
